MEETING

President Ford called the Fire Board meeting to order at 6:18 p.m.

Chief McNeal updated on Fire Department activity. He stated they participated in 736 total calls; 34 calls in the month of November. Mr. McNeal discussed alerts during Hurricane Sandy and their participation in New Jersey.

Chief McNeal discussed the man hours and the process of recouping some of the expenses incurred during Hurricane Sandy.

The lineup for the Christmas parade was discussed.

President Ford discussed the coordination from the Fire Department during the recent storm and expressed extreme appreciation for combined efforts.

President Slaughter discussed the Bull Roast. He stated it was a successful fundraiser.

The renovations and HVAC are working well at the Firehouse.

The dedication ceremony will be re-scheduled to January.

Assistant Chief Engineer Jason Spies discussed the tower replacement progress. He stated that they are down to three manufacturers; E-One, Pierce and Sutphin.

ADJOURN

President Ford adjourned the Fire Board meeting at 6:31 p.m.

Kathy M. Ruf, Town Clerk
